PROJECTS

Personal Website Development

Creating a personal website to showcase my work, skills, and interests. The site will feature a clean design, an about section, a portfolio, and a contact page. It will be responsive, user-friendly, and optimized for performance.

A Web Portal for BUP Management Department

This project aims to develop Management Mania, an unofficial yet highly useful web portal for students of the BUP Management Department. The platform will provide easy access to student lists, profiles, and essential department-related information. Designed to enhance connectivity and engagement, Management Mania ensures students stay informed and connected within their academic community.
